

Profile

Richard Oladele Balogun (Del), known professionally as The Anchor, is an esteemed event host and renowned public speaker with an extensive background spanning over three decades. He has a distinguished record of hosting and speaking at premier events across the United Kingdom and Nigeria.

The Anchor has successfully led a variety of international business conferences, seminars, annual general meetings, dinners, talk shows, and other significant events for a diverse range of clients. These include multinational corporations, nonprofit organizations, government entities, private businesses, and notable families. Among the organizations he has worked with are KPMG, EY, Investment One, BUA Group, The Federal Ministry of Information & Culture, Nigeria-British Chamber of Commerce, Ecobank, Etisalat, FBN Holdings, GTBank, The Nigerian Economic Summit Group (NESG), The Nigerian Bar Association (NBA), Lekki Free Zone, The Nigerian Institute of Civil Engineers, Gbenga Biobaku & Co., Wimbiz, and Terra Culture, to name just a few.

Del's effectiveness as an anchor stems from his exceptional interpersonal skills, his commitment to meticulous planning, and his unwavering professionalism. These qualities were refined through years of experience, not only in the event industry but also through his tenure in high-level professional roles. Beginning his career in the banking sector after graduating from the University of Leicester, he ascended to senior management positions at Econet, Airtel, and Etisalat (now 9mobile).

In addition to his hosting and speaking engagements, Del is a business entrepreneur. He is the founder of Rianne and Barrels and oversees a conglomerate of businesses specializing in oil & gas, food processing, IT solutions, and business consultancy. He also contributes his expertise and guidance as a member of the Board of Trustees for The Waterbrook Church, Senforce Insurance Brokers, ISI Alumni, and the House of Freedom.

A passionate advocate for community, family, and people, Del invests considerable effort in community building and mentoring young individuals, demonstrating his belief in the transformative power of collective growth and support.

theanchor.com.ng